

Webber International University is seeking candidates for the Assistant Men's Soccer coach. This position is entry level, 17,000 with benefits.

- Assist head coach in all aspects of developing and maintaining a competitive intercollegiate sport program within the NAIA & Sun Conference.
- Oversee & Head coaching responsibilities of the JV Program
- Instruct and teach student-athletes in fundamentals of sport technique and strategy. Experience training goalkeepers preferred.
- Assist in film breakdown, analysis of film breakdown, & scouting of opponents.
- Plan and execute practice and competition plans.
- Evaluate and recruit qualified student-athlete for Warriors and whose athletic skills make them highly competitive in the Sun conference and whose academic abilities make them good candidates for a meaningful academic experience and graduation from the Webber International University.
- Perform administrative responsibilities as assigned by head coach.
- Provide opportunities for student-athletes to develop life and leadership skills.
- Assist in monitoring the academic performance of student-athletes to help them achieve full potential.
- Establish and maintain effective relationships within the athletics department, the University, community, donors, alumni, club & high school coaches, media and the general public.
- Represent the University and its athletic programs in a positive fashion in private and public forums.
- Assist in advancing the department's mission, vision, and strategic plan including its Commitment to adhering to all rules and regulations of the Department, the University, the NAIA and Sun Conference.

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree required
- Coaching experience
- College playing experience

Preferred Qualifications:

- Master's degree preferred
- At least 3 yrs experience coaching

Submit Resume and Cover letter to: jobs@webber.edu

Application link at www.webber.edu/careers

